

2021 PNWGT Bonus Listing

Code	Location	Lat	Long	Object	Notes
WA1	Forks, WA	N47.945508	W124.384985	Gold Star Memorial	Washington state's only Gold Star Memorial is a long way from everywhere. Search for Gold Star Memorial to learn more about the significance of this object. Watch out for vampires while visiting...take a picture of the memorial located near the Forks Transit Center with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA2	Nespelem, WA	N48.166066	W118.979491	Chief Joseph Rest Area Sign	Chief Joseph Rest Area has a roadside sign with a metal headdress sculpture perched on top. Take a picture of the sign with the sculpture with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA3	Anatone, WA	N46.041275	W117.253799	Boggan's Oasis	Boggan's Oasis is a small restaurant that sits on one of southeast Washington's most exciting roads. Take a picture of the restaurant with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA4	Winthrop, WA	N48.426596	W120.141324	North Cascades Smokejumper Base	This airport located near Winthrop is home to the North Cascades Smokejumper base. Take a picture of the entrance sign with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA5	Ilwaco, WA	N46.313439	W124.000152	Port of Ilwaco Airport	This small landing strip sits in the southwest corner of the state in a beautiful area. The east end of the runway offers shoulder parking with the runway in the background. Take a picture of the runway from the east end with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA6	Elbe, WA	N46.764491	W122.194281	Small White Church	A very small church in Elbe has the designation as a National Historic Site. Take a picture of the church with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA7	Maryhill, WA	N45.694747	W120.805887	Stonehenge	This replica of the famous Stonehenge offers fantastic views of the Columbia River Gorge. Take a picture of the stonehenge with your bike and flag in the picture.
WA8	Prescott, WA	N46.656618	W118.264947	Palouse Falls State Park	Palouse Falls State Park is a small little gem located in the middle of nowhere. The road from WA-261 to the actual park is about 2.5 miles of good quality dirt. You do not need to ride the dirt to get this bonus if you don't want to. Option A - take a picture of the green road sign where Palouse Falls Rd meets WA-261 that says "Palouse Falls State Park 2" with your bike and flag in the picture, or Option B - take a picture of the entrance sign near the parking area with your bike and flag in the picture. Visit in the late spring for a truly impressive sight!
OR1	Manzanita, OR	N45.702242	W123.932266	Nehalem Bay State Airport	Originally on the list for OAT 2014, this small coastal airport isn't much to see but is in a great location on the coast. Take picture of the brown roadside sign "Nehalem Bay Airport" with your bike and flag in the picture.

Code	Location	Lat	Long	Object	Notes
OR2	McDermitt, OR	N42.001227	W117.725212	McDermott State Airport	Another airport from OAT 2014. McDermott is a long way from everything. On the plus side, there is gas in town. The green airport sign is on the short road to the airport from Cordero Mine Road. Take a picture of the green state airport sign with your bike and flag in the picture.
OR3	O'Brien, OR	N42.066781	W123.703811	McCloud River Railroad Car	The O'Brien Store & Post Office is on US-199 a little south of Cave Junction. Continue south for a section of road that will help even out the wear on your tires. Take a picture of the "McCloud River Railroad" car with your bike and flag in the picture. The railroad car is located in the parking lot for the store.
OR4	Days Creek, OR	N42.935135	W123.039269	Milo Academy Covered Bridge	The "Milo Academy Covered Bridge" crosses Days Creek east of Canyonville. Take a picture of the bridge with your bike and flag in the picture.
OR5	Little Alps, OR	N44.963319	W118.232367	Anthony Lakes Ski Area	At an elevation of over 7,000 feet, you will probably want to wait until later in the summer to attempt this location. Take a picture of the USFS roadside sign for Anthony Lakes Ski Area with your bike and flag in the picture.
OR6	Voltage, OR	N43.263069	W118.844133	Malheur NWR	Much of eastern Oregon can be considered the "middle of nowhere"...take a picture of the roadside entrance sign for Malheur National Wildlife Refuge with your bike and flag in the picture.
OR7	Kimberly, OR	N44.759086	W119.643900	John Day River Trading Post	Located amongst some of the best riding eastern Oregon has to offer. Take a picture of the trading post with your bike and flag in the picture.
OR8	Blue River, OR	N44.260227	W121.801382	Dee Wright Observatory	Take a camera on this jaunt! OR-242 between Sisters and OR-126 is an exciting section of highway that crosses the Cascades and gives fantastic views of several Oregon mountains. Take a picture of the Dee Wright Observatory with your bike and flag in the picture. The observatory is a rock structure located on top of a hill. The best (and safest) picture is from the parking area across the highway from the foot path.
ID1	Swan Falls, ID	N43.244629	W116.377115	Swan Falls Welcome Sign	Swan Falls Dam lies on the Snake River south of Boise. The ride down to the sign offers some fantastic views of the Snake River and Swan Falls Dam. Take a picture of the welcome sign (located where the road forks right to the boat launch and left to the picnic area) with your bike and flag in the picture.

ID2	North Fork, ID	N45.401291	W114.168226	Firefighter Memorial	Tour of Honor riders will recognize this memorial from 2020. The location is too good not to reuse it. I suspect TOH riders will not mind a return visit to this fantastic location. The road from US-93 to the bonus location is a paved road, but is subject to rockfall occasionally so take it easy. Stop at numerous pullouts and enjoy the beauty of the Salmon River! Take a picture of the memorial with your flag - your bike is not required at this location.
ID3	Lolo, ID	N46.510899	W114.718128	Lochsa Lodge	This bonus location will take you along one of the most iconic PNW roads - US-12 between Lewiston, Idaho and Lolo, Montana. Take a picture of the Lochsa Lodge with your bike and flag in the picture. Note - the lodge access road is good quality dirt and very short.
ID4	Hope, ID	N48.248208	W116.309757	Ice House Pizzeria	Good riding lies in every direction in the panhandle of Idaho. Take a picture of the Ice House Pizzeria with your bike and flag in the picture.
ID5	Driggs, ID	N43.727007	W111.110953	Big Hole Bagel	Driggs, Idaho lies in the mountains east of Idaho Falls. Pick almost any direction from here and you will find great riding! Take a picture of the Big Hole Bagel & Bistro with your bike and flag in the picture.
ID6	White Bird, ID	N45.756575	W116.306212	Hells Canyon Sign	White Bird is a popular location for Salmon River raft groups to put in for a week long trip down the river. Take a picture of the Hells Canyon sign with your bike and flag in the picture. Note - don't skip too many gas stops in this area of Idaho. It is very desolate.
ID7	Ketchum, ID	N43.907129	W114.796912	Smiley Creek Lodge	ID-75 is a fantastic road that travels through some of central Idaho's most beautiful terrain. Take a picture of the Smiley Creek Lodge with your bike and flag in the picture.
ID8	Moore, ID	N43.527519	W113.502980	Craters of the Moon Sign	Imagine the most desolate place you have ever ridden...this might be it! Craters of the Moon National Monument is a great place to take a break and explore. Take a picture of the roadside monument sign at either side of the preserve with your bike and flag in the picture. Note - the GPS coordinates listed here are on the east side of the preserve. There is a similar sign on the west side of the preserve that is acceptable.

MT2	Cameron, MT	N44.830875	W111.425808	Earthquake Lake Visitor Center	Located near the Montana/Idaho border west of Yellowstone, there aren't too many areas with better scenic quality than this area. Visit the visitor center and enjoy the relatively short history of Earthquake Lake. Take a picture of the visitor center with your bike and flag in the picture.
NV1	Gerlach, NV	N40.652048	W119.353847	Bruno's Country Club	Take a picture of Bruno's Country club with your bike and flag in the picture.
NV1 Alt	Gerlach, NV	N40.681465	W119.360764	Iron Butt Memorial	Make a stop in this obscure part of Nevada and discover the Iron Butt Memorial - a member maintained site that pays tribute to long distance riding. This location involves riding along Guru road to a turnoff on the left (marked by GPS coordinates), followed by a short trip up to the memorial site. Guru Rd is dirt, and sometimes not well maintained. This is an alternate location to Bruno's. Take a picture of the memorial with your flag and bike in the picture.
NV2	Wild Horse, NV	N41.687636	W115.844574	Wild Horse Dam	Make sure you know your gas limits and the locations of gas stations before traveling here. It is truly the "middle of nowhere". But you will be rewarded with some fun riding and beautiful scenery. Take a picture of the Wild Horse Dam information sign with your bike and flag in the picture.
CA1	Burney, CA	N40.882151	W121.663687	Alpine Drive Inn	Burney is near a fantastic state park - Burney Falls State Park. I didn't want to require you to pay entrance to get a bonus picture. If you have time, stop by the park and enjoy an impressive waterfall. Take a picture of the Alpine Drive Inn with your bike and flag in the picture.
CA2	Lewiston, CA	N40.800777	W122.768012	Trinity Dam	There is an endless supply of good riding in northern California, and this location will take you through a good portion of it. You should be able to get a picture similar to the sample provided by using the turnout parking area just upstream of the dam. Take a picture of the dam with you bike and flag in the picture.
